minstrel	minstrel a paid travelling singer The minstrel travelled from town to town, singing for his supper.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
lubricate	lubricate to add a substance that makes surfaces slippery He used oil to lubricate the gears.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
	mausoleum a decorative burial tomb, often above ground mausoleum	They built a large marble mausoleum in which to bury the great man.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
cataract	cataract a film that grows on the eye and blurs vision The cataract blurred the old man's vision.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
vouchsafe	Vouchsafe to grant with condescension The judge will vouchsafe the pardon.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com

imperceptible	imperceptible barely able to be noticed or detected I could not make out the imperceptible text.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
venomous	Venomous poisonous and toxic He took the antidote for the venomous bite.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
perusal	perusal a reading or scrutiny of something I looked over a report sent for my perusal.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
olfactory	olfactory having to do with the sense of smell Use your olfactory senses to smell the rose.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
waft	Waft to move around on air, especially smells The scents of flowers waft in the summer air.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com