shark	shark large fish with sharp teeth, pointy top fin A great white shark has many rows of sharp teeth.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
check	check to find out what or how one is doing Check on the dog and see what he is doing.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
queen	queen female monarch or wife of the king The prince is the queen and king's only son.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
circus	Circus a show featuring clowns, animals and acrobats Elephants and clowns perform at the circus.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
crack	crack a small opening Weeds grow in the crack in the sidewalk.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com

squeeze	Squeeze to compress inward Squeeze the toothpaste slowly out of the tube.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
quart	quart unit of measurement equal to two pints There are two pints in a quart of milk.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
squeak	squeak a quick high pitched noise The mouse makes a high pitched squeak .
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
quick	quick taking only a short time to do something The quick boy ran fast and won the race.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com
coldest	coldest lowest in temperature or most frigid It was the coldest day of the snowy winter.
© SpellingCity.com	© SpellingCity.com